

SPRING 2010 TRAINING WORKSHOPS IN TEACHING CHINESE

*A workshop series provided by
UH Chinese Language Teacher Education Program (CLTE) and the Confucius Institute (CI)*

The University of Hawaii's Chinese Language Teacher Education program (CLTE) and the Confucius Institute cordially invite you to attend the Spring 2010 training series focusing on Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language.

Workshop Information:

Continuing from Fall 2009, this workshop series is tailored to provide extensive assistance and training for pre- and in-service Chinese language teachers to further develop effective teaching skills. Session topics are selected based on interest and recommendations from previous teacher participants, focusing on specific techniques and disciplines relating to teaching Chinese. The series will be conducted in both lecture and discussion format, and in conjunction with a Symposium with Hawai'i educators to discuss the importance of Chinese language programs, and a mini book expo to showcase useful materials in teaching Chinese.

Session Topic/Date/Time: (9:30 am to 11:30 am for each session, unless specifically indicated)

1. Symposium: Develop the Next Generation of Global Leaders - Importance of Chinese Language Programs in Public Schools – 3/12/2010, Friday (11:00 am to 1:30 pm, Pacific Club)
2. Effective Methods and Resources of Teaching Pinyin – 4/3/2010, Saturday
3. Classroom-based Language Testing – 4/10/2010, Saturday
4. Make Your Class More Vivid: Teaching Chinese with Modern Technology – 5/1/2010, Saturday
Morning - 9:30 am to 11:30 am; Afternoon - 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm (Lunch break 11:30 to 12:45 pm)
5. Accountability to Learners – 5/8/2010, Saturday (open to all Foreign Language teachers)
Morning - 9:30 am to 11:30 am; Afternoon - 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm (Lunch break 11:30 to 12:45 pm)
6. Extensive Reading: Helping L2 Students Become Readers + Book expo – 5/15/2010, Saturday
Workshop - 9:30 to 11:30; Book expo - 11:30 am to 12:30 pm

Location: Moore Hall Classroom #423 (unless specifically indicated above)
(Tentative) UH Manoa, 1890 East West Rd. Honolulu, HI 96822
 Actual location may change based on the number of participants.*

Participants: All pre- and in-service Chinese language teachers are welcomed (unless specifically indicated above).

Cost/Application: None. Participants can attend selective or all scheduled sessions. Please fax the attached application form to Sunny at 956-2682 or mail to:
JiaLin Sun (CLTE Program Coordinator)
1890 East West Rd. Moore Hall #416B, Honolulu, HI 96822
 A recognition certificate will be issued upon successful completion of ALL sessions.*

Deadline to Apply: March 8, 2010 for Symposium; March 26, 2010 for the remaining sessions.

Questions: Please contact Sunny at 956-2663 or jialin@hawaii.edu

Funded by a grant from the Freeman Foundation/UHM Confucius Institute

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII CHINESE LANGUAGE TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM (CLTE)
Spring 2010 Teacher Training Workshop Series

Application Form

Name: _____

Current mailing address: _____

Work: _____ Home: _____ Cell: _____

Email: _____ Current occupation: _____

Where did you learn about this workshop? _____

Are you a: Returning participant New Participant

Educational Background:

Academic Major: _____ BA BS MA MS PhD Other _____

Institution/date you received or will receive your degree: _____

Teaching Experience: (skip if you are returning, unless there is a change since your previous participation)

School: _____ When: _____

Subject: _____ Class Load: _____

School: _____ When: _____

Subject: _____ Class Load: _____

Time Availability and Preference if teaching positions are available with our recommendation/placement:

Time: _____

Location: _____

References:

Name: _____ Phone: _____ Position: _____

Name: _____ Phone: _____ Position: _____